NLFI AND ABN AMRO AMEND RELATIONSHIP AGREEMENT

On 15 October 2024 NLFI announced its intention to sell part of its stake in ABN AMRO Bank N.V. (“ABN AMRO”) through a trading plan. The intention is to reduce NLFI's stake in ABN AMRO from 40.5 percent to approximately 30 percent. During the execution of the trading plan, NLFI's stake in ABN AMRO may fall below one-third. The relationship agreement between NLFI and ABN AMRO (“Relationship Agreement”) stipulates that NLFI and ABN AMRO will agree in good faith on NLFI's information rights in the event that NLFI's stake falls below one-third.

NLFI and ABN AMRO have agreed on a new arrangement. It has been agreed that, instead of at one-third, NLFI and ABN AMRO will agree in good faith on NLFI's information rights in the event that NLFI's stake falls below 15 percent. It has also been agreed that, upon NLFI's stake falling below one-third, NLFI's information right concerning decisions regarding investments or divestments to the value of € 50 million or more will terminate.

The other provisions in the Relationship Agreement remain unchanged.

The full text of the amendment agreement and the Relationship Agreement are available on both the NLFI and ABN AMRO websites.
