

NL financial investments

The Hague, 7 October 2026

NLFI AND ABN AMRO AMEND RELATIONSHIP AGREEMENT

On 7 October 2026 NLFI announced its intention to sell part of its stake in ABN AMRO Bank N.V. ("ABN AMRO") through a trading plan (the "Trading Plan"). The intention is to reduce NLFI's stake in ABN AMRO from 20.7% to 10.5%. During the execution of the Trading Plan, NLFI's stake in ABN AMRO may fall below 15%. The relationship agreement between NLFI and ABN AMRO (the "Relationship Agreement") stipulates that NLFI and ABN AMRO will agree in good faith on NLFI's information rights in the event that NLFI's stake falls below 15%.

NLFI and ABN AMRO have agreed on a new arrangement. It has been agreed that the information rights granted to NLFI will remain in place for as long as NLFI retains a stake of 10% or more in ABN AMRO. As soon as NLFI's stake in ABN AMRO falls below 10%, the Relationship Agreement will terminate. The Relationship Agreement and the information rights will therefore remain in force for the duration of the Trading Plan.

The full text of the amendment agreement and the Relationship Agreement is available on the websites of NLFI and ABN AMRO.